Ruben and Janie Saravia are the Director and Assistant Director, respectively, of Sozo Home, a faith based ministry operating since 2013, whose focus is on creating a safe atmosphere where the lost, the addicts and the homeless may be saved, finding their home in a lifelong, personal relationship with Jesus Christ. Ruben fills the role of father, teacher and mentor – leading by example to show them how to live a life on purpose while equipping them to step into their God-given destiny. Janie serves as cook, bookkeeper, administrator as well as mentor/teacher. Janie is a volunteer chaplain at the Kerr County Jail and Texas Department of Corrections women's prison.

Ruben and Janie have been married 30 years and they have 3 daughters and 3 grandchildren.

One of Janie's favorite Scriptures is Ezekiel 36:26 "I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you; I will take the heart of stone out of your flesh and give you a heart of flesh."

Rueben enjoys Hebrews 4:16 "Therefore, let us approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in time of need."

AGLOW US NATIONAL CONFERENCE - CANCELED

7/23/20 - Message from Jane Hansen Hoyt:

Warm greetings to each of you.

As you are aware, a couple of weeks ago, we made the difficult decision to cancel the venue in North Carolina because the Governor has allowed no more than 10 people to meet in the ballroom. Since that time, we have explored meeting in an alternate location. And, we have held off making any announcements because the restrictions in each state seem to change weekly.

At this time, after much prayer and seeking the Lord, I wanted to come to you in person and let you know that we will not be holding an Aglow Conference in September of this year.

We want you to know that we are looking at other ways we can connect as a family in the future.
