(In the Old Sanctuary)

SPEAKER: SUZANNE TOMERLIN

Suzanne was born and raised in the Texas Hill Country, and attended Texas Tech University where she received a degree in Accounting. Accounting wasn't her first choice; she wanted to study psychology. But her father thought she should get a degree in something that would provide a good income; and since he was paying for her education, she complied with his wishes. A few years after graduation, Suzanne married her elementary school sweetheart who was working as a stage hand to supplement his income in order to put himself through college. After he graduated, they moved to Nashville where he began to make a career in the entertainment industry managing artists. Eventually he had his own record label and a music publishing company.

But what God puts in you, He is faithful to bring to fullness, and as Suzanne says, "Isn't everyone's life a God story as soon as they let Him in? I am a survivor of child sexual abuse and I finally ended up where God wanted me to be."

After a number of years in Nashville, Suzanne returned to the Texas Hill County when her two daughters were in elementary school. She never gave up on her dreams; she went on to graduate school at UTSA and finally began to pursue her first love: Psychology. Suzanne has been with Hill Country Crisis Council for 10 wonderful years serving as the Development Director, as well as the director of their hospital response system.
