A MORNING OF WORSHIP AND TESTIMONIES

Revelation 12:11 – They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the WORD OF THEIR TESTIMONY; they did not love their lives so much as to shrink from death.

We are living in very interesting times and each one of us has a testimony of who God is and who He has been for us over this past year. We can truly say we have experienced the promises of Psalm 91: He has saved us from the fowler's snare and from the deadly pestilence. He has covered us with his feathers, and under his wings we have found refuge; his faithfulness has been our shield and rampart."

When David went through times of testing, he pulled out his weapons of praise and testimony: Psalm 23:4-5 says, "Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies."

Now is the time for us to do the same thing: to raise our Hallelujahs and praise the Lord and to proclaim the goodness of God that has brought us through the fire and through the flood. We raise our weapons of praise and the word of our testimony – not because our trials are over, but because the enemy cannot stand for us to sing and shout and declare the goodness of God! Let's rise up and shout! For the Lord our God is mighty and He is worthy of our praise!
