The Power of Unity in Prayer

Acts 2:1 – When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place.

Matthew Henry's Concise Commentary describes the atmosphere that was present in that place: "We cannot forget how often, while their Master was with them there were strifes among the disciples (as to) which should be the greatest; but now all these strifes were at an end. They had prayed more together of late. Would we have the Spirit poured out upon us from on high, (then) let us be all of one accord. And notwithstanding differences of sentiments and interests, as there were among those disciples, let us agree to love one another; for where brethren dwell together in unity, there the Lord commands his blessing."

The power the disciples would need to carry out their worldwide evangelistic mission began with a season of unity in prayer. That is also Aglow's mission – Every nation touched, every heart changed. On July 10, we will have the same opportunity to come together – one heart, one mind, one Spirit – to pray for those things that are on God's heart and receive the power of the Holy Spirit to carry out our mission. Come and move with us into all the Holy Spirit has for us.

God has entrusted to us, the women and men of Aglow, His heart and His purposes along with the authority to fulfill our Kingdom destiny. One of those purposes relates to our call to Israel. For over 20 years, Aglow has taken groups into Israel to pray, prophesy, and proclaim God's prophetic purposes over the land and the people. Plan to join us APRIL 1-11, 2022, as we step further into our Kingdom destiny. Updates will be posted as they become available.
