Speaker: Lisa Rollison

In July 2011, Lisa Rollison witnessed the supernatural presence of the Holy Spirit: God became real to her, and she obeyed Him by being baptized.

In January of 2016, Lisa attended her first women's Bible study, where she discovered that God's Word is the Sword of the Spirit. Then just a few months later she received the baptism of the Holy Spirit. Having been caught off guard by that experience, Lisa proceeded to earnestly study her Bible. She needed to find out everything she could, about this Holy Spirit and this Sword she had been given!

Lisa told the Lord that she wanted to dedicate the rest of her life to serving Him. In 2018, God called Lisa to jail and prison ministry for women. She found that her experience with addiction, combined with her new identity in Jesus, enabled her to offer a real hope of healing through a new life in Christ to the women being held captive by the spiritual prisons of the world. It wasn't very long, before Lisa discovered a true understanding of how God can take something horrible from our past and turn it into something that He uses for His good, to glorify Him. As Lisa watched God use her personal testimony, combined with His Scriptures and teachings, to break the chains off others, she soon realized that she would never have to feel the shame of her past ever again.

Lisa is the author of the book, Ship of Salvation. The book, written under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, is a life-changing lesson on true Spiritual forgiveness and real Spiritual transformation, which everyone can experience as they learn their true identity in Christ. Along with the book, Lisa authored a Bible study companion to the book, which allows the reader to take the message to an even deeper more personal level.

Lisa is still active in jail ministry at the Kerr County Jail, as well as at the Bandera County Jail. She has also partnered with Mercy Gate Ministries, as a teacher of a life-skills/anger management class, which counts towards women's probation requirements. In addition to that class, Lisa is also participating in their non-residential Journey Program, as a mentor.
